

2019 Congressional Art Competition

Brought to Wisconsin's Eighth District by Congressman Mike Gallagher

Dear Dad by Mackenzie Retzlaff

Each spring, Members of the U.S. House of Representatives sponsor a nation-wide high school art competition to recognize and encourage students' artistic talent. The 1st place winner from each Congressional district will be displayed in an exhibit in the U.S. Capitol Building for one year. Additionally, the winner will receive two round-trip tickets to view their piece in Washington D.C.

Guidelines: Artwork must be no larger than 26"x26"x4" and original in concept, design and execution.

Eligible artwork submitted to the competition is to be displayed in the Trout Museum of Art during the month of April 2019.

ACCEPTED MEDIUMS INCLUDE:

DRAWINGS

pastels, colored pencil, charcoal, ink, markers, mixed media

PAINTINGS

oil, acrylics, watercolor

COLLAGE

PHOTOGRAPHY

PRINTS

lithographs, silkscreen, block prints

COMPUTER-GENERATED ART

Want to learn more? Contact Congressman Gallagher's office at (920) 301-4500.